CARTHAGE JAIL

3. Joseph Smith, the Prophet and Seer of the Lord, has done more, save Jesus only, for the salvation of men in this world, than any other man that ever lived in it. In the short space of twenty years, he has brought forth the Book of Mormon, which he translated by the gift and power of God, and has been the means of publishing it on two continents; has sent the fulness of the everlasting gospel, which it contained, to the four quarters of the earth; has brought forth the revelations and commandments which compose this book of Doctrine and Covenants, and many other wise documents and instructions for the benefit of the children of men; gathered many thousands of the Latter-day Saints, founded a great city, and left a fame and name that cannot be slain. He lived great, and he died great in the eyes of God and his people; and like most of the Lord's anointed in ancient times, has sealed his mission and his works with his own blood; and so has his brother Hyrum. In life they were not divided, and in death they were not separated!

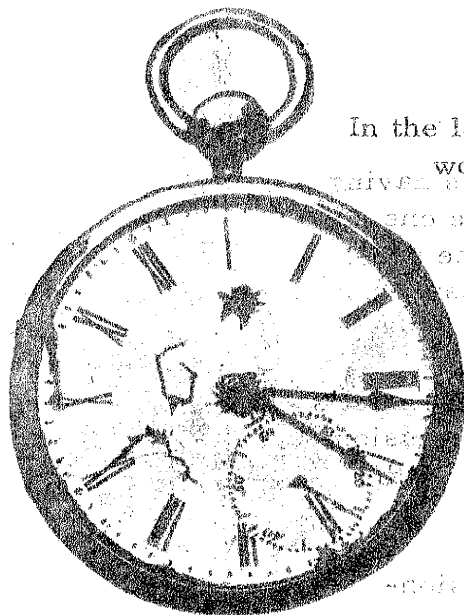

4. When Joseph went to Carthage to deliver himself up to the pretended requirements of the law, two or three days previous to his assassination, he said: "I am going like a lamb to the slaughter; but I am calm as a summer's morning; I have a conscience void of offense towards God, and towards all men. I SHALL DIE INNOCENT, AND IT SHALL YET BE SAID OF ME—HE WAS MURDERED IN COLD BLOOD."— The same morning, after Hyrum had made ready to go— shall it be said to the slaughter? yes, for so it was— ...

6. Hyrum Smith was forty-four years old in February, 1844, and Joseph Smith was thirty-eight in December, 1843; and henceforward their names will be classed among the martyrs of religion; and the reader in every nation will be reminded that the Book of Mormon, and this book of Doctrine and Covenants of the church, cost the best blood of the nineteenth century to bring them forth for the salvation of a ruined world; and that if the fire can scathe a green tree for the glory of God, how easy it will burn up the dry trees to purify the vineyard of corruption. They lived for glory; they died for glory; and glory is their eternal reward. From age to age shall their names go down to posterity as gems for the sanctified.

Doctrine & Covenants 135: 3, 4, & 6

HYRUM SMITH

In the last few months, we have had excellent success in our work. Although our numbers have diminished, we have been blessed with a good number of baptisms. At the conclusion of April, we have 1,080 baptisms for the fiscal year 1972-1973. Last year at this same time we had 1,077, thus, with fewer elders, we have managed to continue our record breaking pace this year. This success we must attribute to the Lord, for he has been exceedingly kind to us. He has blessed us unceasingly. We desire these blessings to continue, to be worthy of them in the future we must dedicate ourselves and resolve to cultivate integrity.

We all know of the integrity of Pres. Heber C. Kimball, he was a powerful man. Elder George A. Smith at Brother Kimball's funeral said the following about his missionary efforts.

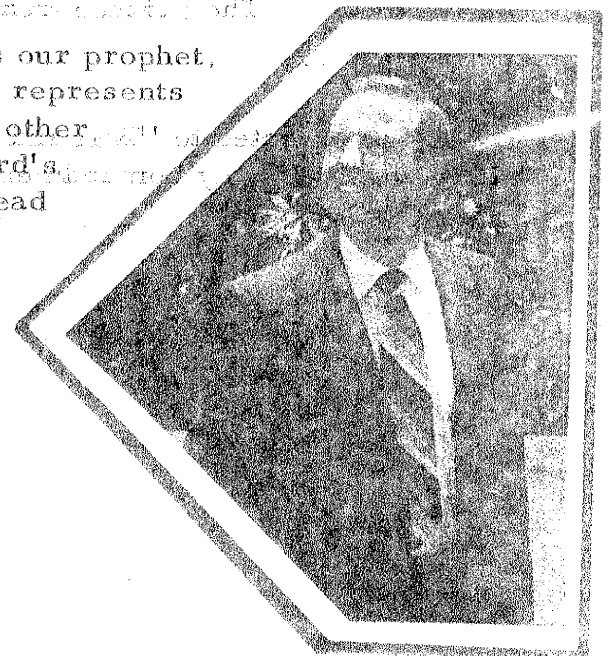

"It was strange the power and influence which he had over persons whom he had never before seen. On one occasion he went five days to some towns which he had never visited before, and among people whom he had never seen and who had never seen him, yet in those five days he baptized 83 persons. It seemed that there was a power and influence with him beyond that which almost any other elder possessed." (Journal of Discourses 12:182)

This great power came from the Lord's spirit which resided abundantly with Pres. Heber C. Kimball. You too, may have this power through faithful living and application of the powerful principles contained in the Doctrine and Covenants. Search out the scriptures regarding missionary work and apply them, you have the Lord's promise of power. Use the proselyting pamphlet of the mission to guide you to greater efficiency and effectiveness. I promise you that you will enjoy success beyond your fondest dreams. Just as we have as a mission (collectively) enjoy success beyond our expectations.

The Lord lives, I know this, Harold B. Lee, is our prophet, and our leader, he is approved of the Lord. He represents the power that comes from righteousness. Our other leaders are also inspired men who have the Lord's strength with them. Joseph Smith, Jr. is the head of this dispensation and he works for us on the other side of the veil. We have the priesthood of God and we must use it according to his plan. The Book of Mormon is the most effective tool for conversion we have, use it. May the Lord bless you I sincerely pray.

With Love,

George A. Smith

When I joined the church fourteen years ago, the M.I.A. was having a poster campaign especially for the youth. They would feature one theme per month; all based on "Be Honest with Yourself." One poster, that particularly stands out in my mind, had a runner crossing the finish line and the words "Run and Win."

Elders and Sisters, you are here to win! Being a member of Christ's Church here on the earth, you are on the winning team. As a missionary, you're playing first string and are depended upon greatly by the coach and your fellow players.

It's up to you to learn to put it all together and win as a missionary. Learn to live the training rules by self-discipline. Be a pace setter and keep your companions on the move.

He was the fellow who "also ran";
Nobody asked his name,
Pressing hard by the winning man,
On to the tape he came;
Yet he was the fellow who set the pace,
And his the effort which made the race.
Why did he make that extra sprint?
Who made the winner shine?
Only a "runner up" in print,
One of the starting line,
Many a runner whose pace grew slack
Rallied because of the man at his back.
Words that flowed from the author's pen,
Songs which the world impressed,
May have been thoughts of humbler men,
Which they had ill-expressed.
In the path of a great success you find
The printed tread of the man behind.

— Brenda Heaten

You are expected to "Run and Win." Don't be a quitter!
"If ye shall keep my comandments and endure to the end you shall have efernal life."
Doctrine & Doctrine 14:7

Dear President Oakes,

We've really had some problems with inventory this week. We can't seem to get any.

I was really feeling down today as all of our inventory had fallen. Our sharp lady turned out to have the lineage. I was really depressed tonight as I was walking down the street. The wind was blowing hard, I was freezing and everything seemed down to me. As we were walking almost under a tree, someone from the other side of the street yelled out "Look out the tree's going to fall." After stopping I didn't have time to think what was happening as a tree from the other side of the street crashed directly in front of my comp. and I. As it came down it crashed into electrical wires which caused a very loud explosion and bright flash of light like lightning. It seems as though I was under the tree where the one crashed on top of. But after realizing what had happened I found myself off the side a bit. My comp was on the ground but unharmed also farther from the tree than where it seemed we first were. After a few moments of silence we questioned each other as to what happened. We remembered that someone yelled something to us in English - perfect English without any soltadue Brasileira. I went over to where the voice came from but we couldn't find anyone that could speak English. Finally it sunk through my big head the Lord had really blessed us. Had we not heard that voice of our Elder I'm sure we would have become badly injured if not killed. After that we taught a real fantastic 1st. The guy mentioned a few times we were sent by the Lord. I knew we were. The Lord really looked over us today -

Love,

Elder Enger

Dear President Oakes

I really love the work everything is really going fine. I and Elder Enger were part of a miracle today. We were walking down the street about 9:00 P.M. when we heard a voice in English shout "Look out!" that tree is going to fall. We jumped back just in time to watch a great big tree crash down in front of us. And a big flash of light as the tree struck some electric wires directly over our heads. If not for the voice we would have been under that tree. We both heard the voice and it was perfect English. It seemed to come from the other side of the street. We looked for someone to thank but there was noone. The Lord does love and care for us. I know the church is true.

Elder Kelly Reber

President Cakes-

It's really hard to express the many blessings we are able to receive from our Father in Heaven. This week we went on Furse & Script- that cool thing that everyone loves to do. Elder Rex and I had tracted for 3 1/2 straight hours in the morning w/out one door being opened to let us in. Then we hit this one door and a real grouchy man came out and told us to get lost. I mentioned to him that we had a message to give him. Then he just walked off and another man came out excused the man that talked to us and then let us in. He asked us if we wanted some alcohol to drink. We said we didn't drink stuff like just water milk and things like that. Then he offered us water and that was gone very soon. Then he asked if we had eaten lunch-we said no. We then got into a first. After a fairly good 1st he had his wife buy eggs and fix a meal for us. Today he came out to church w/2 dozen bananas for us. Yesterday we gave his wife a blessing for health. A real sharp couple. The Lord really looks after his Elders.

-Thank You-

Elder Carey

I would again like to remind every Elder to be conscious of the necessity of turning in all baptismal recommends immediately after each baptism. Complete the quadrant of each:

Elders	District
How Found	Complete or Completed Family

Please turn in your district histories on the last day of each month.

Sincerely,

Elder Mark Kellen

Lately, we have been receiving many unqualified references. Experience proves unqualified reference to be a waste of the elder's time, and thus a hindrance in the Lord's work. In the future, unqualified references will be thrown away. A qualified reference must contain the correct name, complete address, marital status and children, occupation, free time, lineage, and religion. To save time in the Lord's work, and have your golden contact visited, Please cooperate.

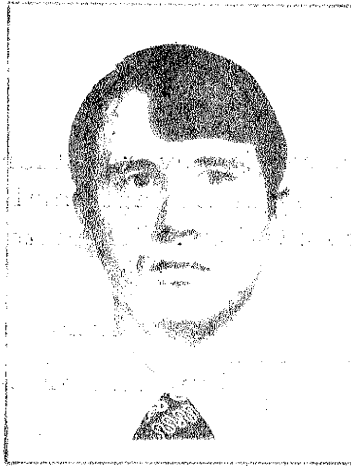

Sincerely,

Elder J. Clark Thier

President John Taylor

IT'S NOT FOR SALE

Honesty is something more than keeping out of jail, living within the law, or avoiding trouble with the authorities. Honesty is the pure-gold bullion of integrity. The honest man determines scrupulously to keep the rules of the game. He stands upright, no matter how great the storm breaks over him. He is fearlessly outspoken. He is courageously true in action and expression. Our country today needs honest men. The man of high integrity does not "have his price." He can never be bought.
